Saisystems International Awards $3,000 to Charities in Honor of Business Anniversary

SHELTON, CT (November 3, 2017)—As part of Saisystems International’s recent 30th anniversary celebration, the company held a raffle for three $1,000 donations to be made in guests’ name to charities of their choice.

Guests eagerly participated in the hopes of benefiting their favorite nonprofits.

“There was a lot of excitement around this charity contest. I don’t think many people expected this gesture at an anniversary event, but corporate citizenship is integral to our core values and industry success,” said Manoj Wadhvani, President of Saisystems Health.

The company has long-prided itself on five unique core values that guide its business practices. President and CEO of Saisystems International Dr. Ramesh Wadhvani lives by the mantra of “Love All, Serve All,” and was thrilled to share the core value of Seva with guests.

“Seva means to be of service to our clients and our internal team, while contributing to the community. We would not be where we are as a company without community support, so we chose to pay it forward,” he said.

The three winners included: Northern Middlesex YMCA, on behalf of Kenneth C. Landy; Shriners Hospitals for Children, on behalf of Ronald J. Van Patten and Prasanthi Trust, on behalf of Peter Korzeb.

Saisystems International thanks the local and national communities for their continued support, and congratulates the well-deserving charities as well.
