Saisystems International Reveals Brand Refresh at 30th Anniversary Celebration

SHELTON, CT—Sai Systems International, Inc. and Caris Health* are proud to launch a fresh image after thirty successful years. The businesses are now encompassed by the divisions of Saisystems International, Saisystems Technology and Saisystems Health.

“We’re so excited for everyone to discover our new look,” says President and CEO Dr. Ramesh Wadhvani. “For more than thirty years, we’ve built ourselves on quality and integrity, as well as our core values. With this change, we step confidently toward the future of technology and health solutions.”

Saisystems International hosted a 30th anniversary celebration with distinguished guests from all over the country on Tuesday, October 17 at its headquarters in Shelton. Clients and friends were captivated by the surprise unveiling of new logos by Dr. Ramesh and Manoj Wadhvani, President of Saisystems Health.

“Our company has seen many changes since its inception. From humble beginnings, we’ve grown to assisting clients from worlds away, right at home,” says Manoj. “We are excited to share this announcement, and hope for continued collaboration with community members and friends.”

Dr. Ramesh and Manoj invite everyone to explore Saisystems International’s new look and website, and to navigate the ever-changing technology and healthcare landscape, together.
