

The first thirty years were just the beginning.

New look. Same continuing commitment.

Saisystems International has seen many changes since its inception 30 years ago. From humble beginnings, we've grown to assisting clients worlds away, right at home.

As you know, we are a full-service technology and health company dedicated to helping your business systems operate smoothly. We specialize in information technology, value-added resale, revenue cycle management, and care management programs—and with some teamwork, we might have created something amazing that helped set your company apart.

Now we're doing it with a fresh new look!

We invite you to discover our new image, which includes the quality and integrity of the last three decades, free of charge. With this change, we step confidently toward the future of technology and health solutions.

Join us as we continue to navigate this ever-changing landscape, together.

In your service,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Ramesh Wadhvani'.

Dr. Ramesh Wadhvani
President and CEO, Saisystems International